

MY PRAYER OF DEDICATION Almighty, loving, and eternal God, Thank you for opening my eyes to heaven, and to the truth that you are always good. You open my eyes to your miracles, large and small.

You show me that I can trust you absolutely. You comfort me that death is not to be feared, and that even in heartbreak and loss, beauty will blossom. Now, keep me wide awake to the reality of heaven all around. Renew my inner being so that I may live with joy, serve others, and show your glory on Earth. Lead me and guide me on the path you have prepared. May your will be done today and always. Amen.

Neal, Mary C.. 7 Lessons from Heaven: How Dying Taught Me to Live a Joy-Filled Life (p. 242). The Crown Publishing Group. Kindle Edition.